Extending Hope, Unlocking Growth

Together, We Shape the Future of
Islamic Finance with the INCEIF Endowment Fund

INCEIF University invites all philanthropists who share the same vision and commitment to advancing and developing Islamic finance to be part of the INCEIF Endowment Fund. The INCEIF Endowment Fund is a perpetual charitable gift to a non-profit organization, where the proceeds are continuously utilised for designated and general purposes, ensuring a sustainable impact.

At INCEIF University, we don't just educate. We shape the future of Islamic finance and sustainability. Through innovative academic programmes, applied research, and strategic industry collaborations, we sets the global standard for driving industry growth with integrity and impact.

We are part of a global movement to advance Islamic finance—one that seeks to empower underserved communities, strengthen ethical economies, and create lasting societal change. Real progress requires collective effort. Together, we can build a sustainable and ethical future for generations to come.
